AGREED PROTECTIVE ORDER
REGARDING DOCUMENTS
PRODUCED DURING DISCOVERY

17 THIS MATTER comes before the Court upon the agreement of counsel. The parties 18 agree to stipulate to a protective order in this matter with respect to documents requested in 19 Plaintiff's First Set of Request for Production – No. 1 as follows:

20 1. Photographs obtained by parties during discovery in this lawsuit of all officers
21 who were employed to work in University Place in March 2007 and April 2007, as requested
22 in Plaintiff's first Request for Production No. 1, shall be kept confidential by the discovering 23 party. The party may, however, disclose the photographs to experts, consultants, and 24 witnesses as necessary in order to prepare for such things as motions, depositions, and trial in 25 this matter. The term "party" encompasses the party, his or her attorney, and employees of

1 the attorney's firm. .

2 2. If the documents referenced in paragraph 1 are disclosed to nonparties, the 3 nonparties shall be advised of the confidential nature of the documents and of the need to 4 keep the documents and information contained therein confidential.
5

6 3. This order in no way affects the right of a party to use documents subject to 7 this order at trial (including pretrial proceedings) provided that the appropriate evidentiary
8 basis can be established.

9 4. At the conclusion of this litigation and any and all appeals arising out of this 10 litigation, any and all copies of the documents shall be destroyed.

11 5. The parties agree that this order is entered without prejudice and that, at any 12 time while this action is pending, any party may move the court for relief from this protective 13 order and/or amendment of the terms of this order for good cause shown.
